

MATTER

INSIGHT TRIP Safari Packing List

The following Packing List is a recommended guideline for things you can bring with you while on Safari.

Clothing

While on safari, layering is important as mornings and evenings can be chilly but during the day temperatures can be quite warm, depending on the time of year.

Long pants (zip-off pants are very useful)

Shorts, mid-thigh or longer

Short-sleeved shirts

Long-sleeved shirts

Undergarments

Socks

Sweater, jacket, windbreaker

Rain jacket or poncho (some camps provide in vehicles)

Sun hat with brim and chin strap

Bandana

Pajamas

Swimsuit

Shoes

Sturdy, comfortable walking shoes

Flip flops or sandals

Comfortable, breathable socks

Baggage

Soft sided duffel (charter planes require soft sided bags to fit in the undercarriage; 44lbs max weight)

Backpack/Fanny Pack (for daily activities and easy access)

Ziplocs (great for compartmenting and keeping dust out of electronics)

Electronics

Camera

Spare batteries

Cell phone and charger

Electricity converter/adaptor

Miscellaneous

Binoculars

Animal and bird guidebooks

Sunglasses

Toiletries/medications (your trip host will have a first aid kit)

Reading material

Prescriptions

Passport (make sure it is valid 6 months after your trip)

Visas for all countries as necessary