

Safari Packing List

Clothing

While on safari, neutral colored, comfortable clothing is recommended. Layering is important as morning and evenings can be chilly but during the day temperatures can be quite warm, depending on the time of year. Please NOTE: there is a ban on camouflage print clothing in Zimbabwe.

- Long pants (zip-off pants are very useful)
- Shorts, mid-thigh or longer
- Short-sleeved shirts
- Long-sleeved shirts
- Undergarments
- Comfortable, breathable socks
- Sweater and/or sweatshirt
- Light jacket or windbreaker
- Sun hat with brim and chin strap
- Bandana/gator or lightweight scarf
- Pajamas
- Swimsuit

Shoes

- Sturdy, comfortable walking shoes
- Flip flops and/or sandals

Baggage

- Soft sided duffel (If your trip includes a charter flight to your safari lodge, the planes require soft sided bags to fit in the undercarriage; 44lbs max weight. Refer to your itinerary re: charter flights)
- Backpack/Fanny Pack (for daily activities and easy access)
- Ziplocs (great for compartmenting and keeping dust out of electronics)

Electronics

- Camera
- Spare batteries
- Cell phone and charger
- Electricity converter/adaptor

Miscellaneous

- Binoculars
- Animal and bird guidebooks
- Sunglasses
- Toiletries & medications
- Bug repellent & sunscreen
- Tissues & wet wipes
- Reading material
- Journal
- Passport (make sure it is valid 6 months after your trip)
- Visas for all countries as necessary